" THE CHICAGO CABIN "

CITY FOLK SOMETIMES GROW TIRED OF PAVEMENTS, EVEN OF THE AMUSEMENTS OFFERED BY A METROPOLIS. THIS WAS THE NAME OF WILLIAM T PEIGH, OF CHICAGO, AND HIS FAMILY. ONE DAY HE GAVE UP HIS COMFORTABLE APARTMENT, PACKED HIS WORLDLY GOODS AND TURNED FARMER ALMOST OVER NIGHT. TO ALLEN COUNTY HE CAME, AND BOUGHT AN OLD LOG HOUSE SEVEN MILES FROM FORT WAYNE ON THE AUBURN ROAD, JUST BEYOND THE ACADEMY. AND HE IS ONE OF THE MOST CONTENTED FARMERS IN INDIANA. HE MADE HIS LOG CABIN A MARVEL OF MODERN INTERIOR, BUT LEAVING ENOUGH OF ITS ORIGINAL STYLE TO ALLOW THE ATMOSPHERE OF THE PIONEER DAYS TO CLING TO THE CABIN. HIS HOME IS SHOWN IN THE SEVENTH PHOTOGRAPH, AND NUMBEREIGHT DIRECTLY BELOW IS A VIEW OF THE ORIGINAL CABIN OF THE FARM, BUILT FIFTY YEARS AGO OR MORE BY A FRENCH SETTLER. IT NOW IS A COW'S RESIDENCE.

THE SECOND AND SIXTH PICTURES ARE OF A LOG CABIN FAMILIAR TO THE VIEW OF MANY. PASSING IT ON THE ROBINSON PARK CAR LINE, ONE WONDERS HOW THE OLD HOUSE HAS THUS FAR WITHSTOOD THE INFLUENCE OF ARCHITECT AND BUILDER IN THE NORTHERN ADVANCE OF THE RESIDENSE DISTRICT. BUT THERE IT STANDS JUST WHERE THE CAR LINE TURNS EASTWARD. ABOVE THE DOOR IS A RUDE SIGN PROCLAIMING IT "UNCLE TOM'S CABIN" ONE DAY LAST WEEK A MUSKRAT PELT WAS STRETCHED ACROSS ITS DOOR. DRYING IN THE SUN. THIS IS SEEN IS AN ACCOMPANYING PHOTOGRAPH.

A LONELY HERMIT DIED IN THE CABIN SHOWN IN PICTURE NINE. IT STOOD ON A PIECE OF GROUND NEAR AN OUT-OF-THE-WAY CROSS ROADS IN MILAN TOWNSHIP, EAST OF MAYSVILLE ROAD. HE BUILT IT HIMSELF, LIVED THERE FOR YEARS, AND DIED AN OLD, OLD MAN. EVEN HIS DEATH WAS LONELY; HIS BODY WAS FOUND SEVERAL DAYS AFTER HIS DE MISE.

THE TENTH VIEW IS OF A CABIN EAST OF THE CITY, FAR FROM A ROAD, AND NOW DESERTED. IN ANIMATE OBJECTS BEING DEPRIVED OF THE POWER OF SPEECH, THE AGED LOGS CAN ONLY STAND MUTELY, AND THE STORY OF THE EARLY DAYS WHICH IT SAW MUST BE IMAGINED.

The Fort Wayne Sentinel
Sunday Morning April 1, 1917

BUILDER OF SACRED HEART ACADEMY DIES.

Rev. Augustine Adam, oldest priest in Diocese Succumbs to senility.

With the death of Rev. Augustine Adam at St. Joseph's Hospital at 3 o'clock Saturday morning, there passed from the ranks of the clergy of the Diocese of Fort Wayne the oldest member. The venerable priest was 85 years of age and his demise was due to senility. For the past week he had been a patient at the Hospital. Although many of his friends among clergy and laity knew of his declining health, his death will be learned with regret. He was very widely known and many noble attributes of mind and heart, combined with a most genial personality, endeared him to all who came within the circle of his beneficent influence. Father Adam was born in France in 1832, but has resided in this country the greater portion of his life. He is the builder of the Sacred Heart Academy, a flourishing educational institution located seven miles north of Fort Wayne, and which has been conducted by the sisters of the Holy Cross for fifty-one years.

Father Adam, immigrated to this country from France on the occasion of one of the European visits of the Very Rev. Edward Sorin, C.S.C. the eminent founder of the University of Notre Dame.

Pastor At Academie

For a few years after his arrival in this country Father Adam resided in the French settlement at Academie, north of Fort Wayne. It was a scattered settlement of pioneers of which he had charge, but his was the missionary spirit and his solicitude for the welfare of souls an inspiration.

It was during the administration of Rt. Rev. John Henry Luers D.D. first bishop of the Diocese of Fort Wayne, that Sacred Heart Academy was erected. Father Adam at that time Pastor of St. Vincent's Church, entered enthusiastically into the work of rearing Sacred Heart Academy, which had been undertaken by the sisters of the Holy Cross.

The Pioneer Builder.

Lifting into resplendent light the work that Sacred Heart Academy has been doing for more than half a century, we must ever stand in the relation of debtor to Father Adam, for in the foundation of that flourishing educational institution he had no small share.

The first church at Academie, a log structure, faced the present site of the Academy. It is not recorded, however, when it was built nor by whom. The second church, a frame building, was erected by Father Adam in 1861. The Sacred Heart Academy followed in 1868, and the Parochial residence (since replaced by a modern structure) in 1868. While Pastor of St. Vincent's and also later periods, Father Adam performed the duties of Chaplain at St. Vincent's.

January 1, 1870, Father Adam became the resident Pastor of St. Louis Church, Besancon, Ind., another settlement of French pioneers. Five years later with Bishop Dwenger's permission, he returned to France. Here after serving two years as chaplain for the Navy, he was appointed to a model parish in the center of France by the Bishop of Tours. His Church there was over a thousand years old. He remained in France until 1901. When an old man of 73 years and half a century of untiring sacerdotal labor, he begged his Bishop's permission to pass his remaining days in the Trappist Community in Kentucky. He returned to this country for that purpose owing to the persecution of religious orders in France.

However, being too aged for the rigorous Trappists rule, the venerable priest was re-admitted to the Diocese of Fort Wayne, and was appointed Chaplain to the Sisters of St. Joseph at the Mother House near Tipton, Ind.

Returns as Chaplain.

Desiring to return to the scene of his earlier labors, Bishop Alerding later assigned him to the Chaplaincy at Sacred Heart Academy. Five years ago he made another trip to France and for almost two years resided in Perpignan, in the southern section of the country. August 13, 1915, he arrived in Fort Wayne from his trip abroad and shortly after left for the Academy so dear to his heart and where his return has been eagerly anticipated for several weeks. Father Adam's room at the Academy was always kept in readiness for him and his was always a joyful welcome home on the part of faculty and students.

In the golden jubilee celebration of the Sacred Heart Academy held Tuesday June 13, 1916, Father Adam was the central figure in the notable celebration. That he had survived all the years and had seen the institution reach the half century mark was the occasion of heart felt rejoicing. His life was the link that bound the chain of the glorious past with the golden present and in the hearts of old and young memory had enshrined a place for him. To those at Sacred Heart Academy the death of Father Adam comes as a personal grief, on account of his close association with the institution.

To the pioneer of this community the passing of the venerable priest also brings sorrow for years have not lessened their appreciation of his apostolic labors in their midst.

Obsequise on Tuesday.

This afternoon Getz & Cahill will remove the remains from their establishment to St. Vincent's Church, Academie, Ind. where he will lay in state until Tuesday morning at 9 o' - clock when the obsequies will be held. Rev. Joseph A. Lynn pastor of St. Vincent's is in charge of the arrangements for the funeral. It is expected that Rt. Rev. Bishop Herman Joseph Alerding, the local and many of the neighboring clergy will be in attendance.

French & Swiss in Allen County.

Benjamin	Louis	Auger
	and
Lillian	_____	Bird

Born, 2-22-1853 in Fort Wayne, Indiana.

Benjamin Louis Auger, one of the leading Florists of Fort Wayne, was born in this city Feb. 22-1853, the son of Charles and Catherine (Thorpe) Auger. The father was born near Versailles, France in 1824. He was a son of a French florist and worked in the leading gardens of Europe, principally of France. He immigrated to America and after spending sometime in New York City, came to Indiana and located at Marion. In 1852 he came to Fort Wayne and engaged in market and flower gardening, later in 1869 when the city had sufficiently developed, he confined his business to that of a florist, exclusively and is the pioneer florist of Allen County, and one of the oldest in the state. He is still a resident of Fort Wayne, being in his 65th year. His wife who is now in her 55th year was born near London, England, and came to America at about the same time as her husband, to whom she was married in New York City.

Benjamin Louis Auger was educated in the Fort Wayne public schools, and spent three years at Notre Dame. After leaving school, he came into the business with his father. About 1873, he went to Cincinnati and had charge of the establishment of Cooke & Co., the leading florists of that city. Returning home in 1876 he engaged in business with his father and succeeded the later upon his retirement in 1883. He conducts an extensive establishment and has probably the largest cut flower trade in the city. His place at 16 East Washington Street occupies 62x150 feet space and in 1887 he started a growing house 150x150 feet at Creighton Ave.

In 1879 Mr. Auger was married to Lillian, daughter of James Bird of Fort Wayne, and they have three children. Mr. Auger is a member of National and State Florists Associations, Sol. D. Bayless Lodge F. & A. M., The I.O.O.F. K of P., and Trinity Church.

Firemen fight the blaze that engulfed the city's most elegant hotel, the Aveline House.

Cityscapes: Death of the Aveline

In its day, the Aveline House was the city's most elegant hotel. In the end, it was the city's most elegant deathtrap.

The hotel was built in 1863 at the southeast corner of Calhoun and Berry streets by Francis Aveline. Aveline had come to Fort Wayne from Vincennes in 1820 and eventually became one of the city's most important contractor-builders. His name might have faded into oblivion, however, if not for the luxurious hotel which bore his name.

The Aveline House was originally a four-story hotel. Two floors were added later. Because of its central location and fine accommodations, the hotel played host to scores of important guests and functions.

Then, one gray morning, everything ended for the Aveline House. At about 3:30 a.m. on May 3, 1908, as 70 guests slept, a fire broke out at the bottom of the elevator shaft. The flames soon burst from the hotel's windows and spread throughout the building.

Some residents escaped through the door and safely made it to the street. Others found safety by going to the roof, where they jumped onto the tops of neighboring buildings. Others, in desperation, leaped from the windows. Some landed safely, others didn't.

In all, 11 people died in the Aveline House fire. In loss of human life, it was the worst fire the city ever had.

When this photograph was taken, the blaze was at its peak; the old horse-drawn steam fire engine may indicate why it took so long to put out the flames.

Other pictures taken hours later show the huge crowd that gathered around the burned-out hotel's shell following the fire. More than 1,400 people, brought in by excursion train, soon were on hand to witness the hotel's demise. Once the final flame died, it wasn't long before the old Aveline House was torn down.

Like the hotel which bore his name, Francis Aveline's final days were also marred by tragedy. Fort Wayne historian B.J. Griswold wrote that Aveline literally died of grief following the death of his son, Frank, in an 1865 Civil War battle near Chattanooga, Tenn.

In a way, the hotel actually had a better fate. It went out in a blaze of glory, at least. Other, later Fort Wayne hotels were either allowed to stand empty and forgotten or else were dynamited to make room for hamburger joints. ■

CITYSCAPE: the old Aveline

Fire! The cry chills modern Fort Wayne hearts as much as ever. Amazingly, few lives have been lost in the city's long history of hotel fires. The morning of May 3, 1908 stands as one of the most tragic: 12 persons died as fire raced through the proud Aveline House.

The hotel Francis S. Aveline built in 1863 at the southeast corner of Berry and Calhoun streets served as a social focus for the bursting young town.

Aveline needed three years to obtain financing to build the four-story building, the largest hotel in the region. Still he was embarrassed to admit he needed a bit more backing to furnish his "edifice, (which) is a credit to the city."

During its 45-year history, famous theater performers, politicians and noted persons stayed there. Organizations were founded in its elegant meeting rooms and long-distance telephone calls made their Fort Wayne debut there in 1895.

An office building, originally called the Shoaff building and more recently known as the Gettle building, now stands on the site. □
